

Pancakes

You might know it as Pancake Day but it's actually called Shrove Tuesday. What does Shrove mean? Why did the tradition begin?

<https://goo.gl/P49PFS>

What are the key ingredients of pancakes? Find out how to make them.

<https://goo.gl/S3TZvp>

Where do the ingredients come from?

There are some excellent short videos available explaining where our food comes from. Watch this video about eggs

<http://www.countrysideclassroom.org.uk/resources/953>

How long does it take for an egg to form inside the chicken?

Find and watch the video on this page about a milk producer and try to answer the questions on the page
<http://www.whyfarmingmatters.co.uk/using-the-videos>

How is flour made? Which cereal crop is grown and what does milling mean?
<https://goo.gl/F9WGko>

What is your favourite pancake filling? Do you prefer your pancakes sweet or savoury? Why not carry out a survey in class to find out the most popular pancakes?

Here are some savoury pancake recipes

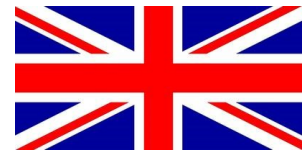

<https://goo.gl/oFXoYX>

Learn more about some of the ingredients
The potato lifecycle:
<https://goo.gl/6yXcpb>

Spinach—how can you grow it?
<https://goo.gl/rtPo1B>

Find out about the history of sweetcorn
<https://goo.gl/XJlv7f>

How can you support British farmers when you make pancakes?

<https://goo.gl/716STS>

If you prefer sweet pancakes, are you tempted by any of these creations?

<https://goo.gl/ZE1dYg>
Can you do better?

Which fruits are in season on Pancake Day?

<https://goo.gl/oQ5sQy>

Pancakes are eaten all over the world. Watch this slideshow to learn more <http://www.bbc.co.uk/food/0/21323249>

What are Southern rice and bean pancakes called?
What is different about American pancakes?
At what time of year do the Danes eat pancakes?